Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C. O. <sup>6/408</sup>.—From Wednesday, the 1st March, a Police Gazette will be published weekly, for distribution amongst the Police Force in this Colony, who are hereby instructed to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the contents thereof, and by vigilance, activity, and zeal, to endeavor to detect the crimes alluded to, arrest the absconders described, and gather the information sought.

The object of the Gazette is to publish a weekly record of crime in a compendious form for the use of the Police.

To ensure accuracy and completeness in its compilation, it is essential that all members of the Force should cooperate honestly and zealously. All criminal informations, of any nature whatsoever, should be forwarded to the Detective Office by every available opportunity. In all such informations the minutest particulars should be entered.

In forwarding reports of Inquests, or deaths, every particular concerning the person killed or found dead should be entered. If expires or convicts, the Register Number should be stated.

In form P22, it ought always to be stated by whom the arrest was effected.

The names of all persons and places should be spelt correctly and written legibly; the christian as well as the surname being written in full.

All brands should be accurately described.

A copy of the Gazette will be forwarded weekly from the Chief Office direct to each Police Station in the Colony, and also to the Officers in charge of Divisions, who in their periodical visits to Police Stations will see that the Gazettes are properly filed, and satisfy themselves that all the members of the Force in their Divisions make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the contents. The Superintendent looks to the Officers in charge of Divisions for a ready support in carrying out the above.

The Gazette is published for the information of the Police only, and the communication of its contents to any person outside the Police Department (except by order) is strictly forbidden.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

February 18th, 1876.

C.O. <sup>6/408</sup>.—In accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance 39 Vic. No. 15, the following rule will be observed by the Police throughout the Colony:—When a Warrant for the apprehension of any person has been issued by a Magistrate at any Station, the Police Officer or Constable in charge of such Station will forward to each Police Station in the Colony, and to the Detective Office in Perth, a copy of such Warrant, countersigned by himself, attaching to the Copy Warrant the Form No. 198, giving an accurate description of the person required to be apprehended.

Arrests in all cases can be effected by the Police on such Copy Warrants.

Officers in charge of Divisions will see that the Police in their Divisions make themselves acquainted with the provisions of the above Ordinance.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

February 18th, 1876.

C. O. <sup>6/408</sup>.—The Superintendent has observed that many of the entries in the Occurrence Sheets are made in a careless manner.

Dates are omitted, surnames are entered without christian names, in entries of offences no description is given of the persons implicated, the Reg. No. of Convicts is omitted, &c., &c. The attention of Officers in charge of Divisions is called to this, as it is essential that all entries should be as accurate as possible.

Queries for the future on the entries in the Occurrence Sheets, and on all Criminal Informations, will be made through the Detective Office by order of the Superintendent of Police, and forwarded to Officers in charge of Divisions.

Such Queries are to be promptly attended to.

All Telegrams received or forwarded are to be entered in full in the Occurrence Sheets.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. <sup>6/100</sup>.—In accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance 39 Vic. No. 15, the following rule will be observed by the Police throughout the Colony:—When a Warrant for the apprehension of any person has been issued by a Magistrate at any Station, the Police Officer or Constable in charge of such Station will forward to each Police Station in the Colony, and to the Detective Office in Perth, a copy of such Warrant, countersigned by himself, attaching to the Copy Warrant the Form No. 198, giving an accurate description of the person required to be apprehended.

Arrests in all cases can be effected by the Police on such Copy Warrants.

Officers in charge of Divisions will see that the Police in their Divisions make themselves acquainted with the provisions of the above Ordinance.

M. S. SMITH,

Superintendent of Police.

February 18th, 1876.

C. O. <sup>6/100</sup>.—The Superintendent has observed that many of the entries in the Occurrence Sheets are made in a careless manner.

Dates are omitted, surnames are entered without christian names, in entries of offences no description is given of the persons implicated, the Reg. No. of Convicts is omitted, &c., &c. The attention of Officers in charge of Divisions is called to this, as it is essential that all entries should be as accurate as possible.

Queries for the future on the entries in the Occurrence Sheets, and on all Criminal Informations, will be made through the Detective Office by order of the Superintendent of Police, and forwarded to Officers in charge of Divisions.

Such Queries are to be promptly attended to.

All Telegrams received or forwarded are to be entered in full in the Occurrence Sheets.

M. S. SMITH,

Superintendent of Police.

Perth, 2nd March, 1876.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O.  $\frac{6}{100}$ .—In accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance 39 Vic. No. 15, the following rule will be observed by the Police throughout the Colony:—When a Warrant for the apprehension of any person has been issued by a Magistrate at any Station, the Police Officer or Constable in charge of such Station will forward to each Police Station in the Colony, and to the Detective Office in Perth, a copy of such Warrant, countersigned by himself, attaching to the Copy Warrant the Form No. 198, giving an accurate description of the person required to be apprehended.

Arrests in all cases can be effected by the Police on such Copy Warrants.

Officers in charge of Divisions will see that the Police in their Divisions make themselves acquainted with the provisions of the above Ordinance.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

February 18th, 1876.

C. O.  $\frac{6}{100}$ .—The Superintendent has observed that many of the entries in the Occurrence Sheets are made in a careless manner.

Dates are omitted, surnames are entered without christian names, in entries of offences no description is given of the persons implicated, the Reg. No. of Convicts is omitted, &c., &c. The attention of Officers in charge of Divisions is called to this, as it is essential that all entries should be as accurate as possible.

Queries for the future on the entries in the Occurrence Sheets, and on all Criminal Informations, will be made through the Detective Office by order of the Superintendent of Police, and forwarded to Officers in charge of Divisions.

Such Queries are to be promptly attended to.

All Telegrams received or forwarded are to be entered in full in the Occurrence Sheets.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

Perth, 2nd March, 1876.
