WEDNESDAY, JUNE 7.

[1876.]

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. ^{9/100}.—In accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance 39 Vic. No. 15, the following rule will be observed by the Police throughout the Colony:—When a Warrant for the apprehension of any person has been issued by a Magistrate at any Station, the Police Officer or Constable in charge of such Station will forward to each Police Station in the Colony, and to the Detective Office in Perth, a copy of such Warrant, countersigned by himself, attaching to the Copy Warrant the Form No. 198, giving an accurate description of the person required to be apprehended.

Arrests in all cases can be effected by the Police on such Copy Warrants.

Officers in charge of Divisions will see that the Police in their Divisions make themselves acquainted with the provisions of the above Ordinance.

M. S. SMITH,

Superintendent of Police.

February 18th, 1876.

C.O. ^{9/174}.—For the future, notifications of the arrest of absconders, stating the name of the Constable by whom the arrest was effected, need only be forwarded direct to the Detective Office, instead of as hitherto, to all stations; where possible, intimation must be sent by telegraph as well as by post. Cancellation of warrants may be notified in same manner. On the receipt of the Police Gazette, the Police throughout the Colony are to be careful to note the announcement of arrests and cancellation of warrants.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21.

[1876.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. ^o/₄₀₀.—In accordance with the provisions of the Ordinance 39 Vic. No. 15, the following rule will be observed by the Police throughout the Colony:—When a Warrant for the apprehension of any person has been issued by a Magistrate at any Station, the Police Officer or Constable in charge of such Station will forward to each Police Station in the Colony, and to the Detective Office in Perth, a copy of such Warrant, countersigned by himself, attaching to the Copy Warrant the Form No. 198, giving an accurate description of the person required to be apprehended.

Arrests in all cases can be effected by the Police on such Copy Warrants.

Officers in charge of Divisions will see that the Police in their Divisions make themselves acquainted with the provisions of the above Ordinance.

M. S. SMITH,

Superintendent of Police.

February 18th, 1876.

C.O. ^o/₄₇₄.—For the future, notifications of the arrest of absconders, stating the name of the Constable by whom the arrest was effected, need only be forwarded direct to the Detective Office, instead of as hitherto, to all stations; where possible, intimation must be sent by telegraph as well as by post. Cancellation of warrants may be notified in same manner. On the receipt of the Police Gazette, the Police throughout the Colony are to be careful to note the announcement of arrests and cancellation of warrants.

M. S. SMITH,

Superintendent of Police.

Reg. No. 7774, EDWARD MARKS, is further described by Vasse Police, as having one of his hands crippled.

No. 1, HENRY RINGTON, Imp. Con., Reg. No. 4620, is shown in list of convict ship Nile, as Henry Rington; but in another part of ship list, he is shown as Henry Kington, with the same description, &c. There is evidently some mistake in spelling the name, and he may be going in name of Kington. Police to add this other name to former description.

No. 7, DENNIS MANNING, Imp. Con., Reg. No. 9513, is further described for information of police, by L.C. Cunningham, as an Irishman, short necked, has a Jewish appearance, walks with a rolling gait, has a deal to say, especially upon horses, carries his arms wide from his body, and will most likely pass for a groom, as he has a good knowledge of horses. Police to add this information to former description.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. ^o/₄₇₉.—On the arrival of a vessel at any seaport of this Colony from a foreign port, the Police Officer in charge at the port will forward to the Chief Office, with as little delay as possible, a return giving the names, Christian and Surname, of all passengers by such vessel, and any information he is able to gather as to who they are, whence they have come, what is their object in coming to the Colony, and where they are going.

This is in addition to the usual Inward and Outward Report, and refers only to passengers who remain in the Colony.

The Water Police are instructed to co-operate with the Land Police in this matter.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

June 19th, 1876.

C.O. ^o/₄₈₀.—When a Certificate of Freedom is issued at any Police Court, to any convict whose sentence has expired, the officer in charge of such station will forward without delay to the Detective Office a report showing the date of issue of such certificate, together with the date and place of conviction, and nature of crime and sentence, copied from the certificate.

M. S. SMITH,
Superintendent of Police.

June 20th, 1876.

Stealing in Dwellings, from the Person, &c.

On the 26th May last, from the hut of George Webster, of Mount Erin,—100 lbs. flour; 30 lbs. sugar; 2 lbs. tobacco; 2 crimean shirts, red and white plaid pattern; 1 light colored tweed coat; 1 oil coat; 2 blue blankets; 1 horse rug, brown, with red stripes at each end; 1 razor, and sundries; most of these things can be identified. Ab. natives Wilbaccoo alias Caronor, and Ginwah, suspected. These natives belong to the Talerang District.—C.I. 143.

From the hut of James Neill, t.l., 10047, on the morning of the 21st inst., at the 7-mile gully, York Road,—2 lbs. of salt pork, and 4 lbs. of sugar. The bag containing the sugar was made of white drill, identifiable.—C.I. 144.

From the hut of Michael Lenahan, shepherd, Victoria Plains, on the 12th inst.,—clothing, and other articles valued at £3. No description of clothing sent; Eastward natives strongly suspected. Description will be given as soon as ascertained.—C.I. 145.

Vide C.I. 138.

The whole of property therein described (with the exception of pearl sleeve links, and crimean shirt) recovered, and identified. Vide Apprehensions.

From the person of James Young, in the Shamrock Hotel, on the night of the 24th inst.,—£2 in silver, one gold locket, description—round, engraved on the edge of one side a wreath of Scotch Thistles, the other side plain with a circle in the centre for name, the likeness of his mother inside. One small gold chain, small links, to wear around the neck, and comes down about the centre of the breast. The link next the swivel broken.—C.I. 146.

Miscellaneous.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.—John Wray, jun., charged by P.C. Bovell, at Albany Police Court, on 13th inst., with cruelly treating a horse. Case proved, and defendant fined £4.

Sergeant Campbell charged George Davies, free, at Fremantle Police Court, on 19th inst, with taking in pledge an article from a child under 14 years of age, on the 22nd May. Fined £1.

John Kenny, pensioner, has reported, that on the night of the 24th inst. some person stole a tin dish and one plate from the rear of his house, in Stirling Street. Kenny complains that some person is in the habit of stealing paltry articles, on each Saturday night, from his yard, and that he suspects John McCormack, who came out in the Naval Brigade.

On 4th inst., Absolom Russ reported seeing the wreck of a three-masted vessel on the beach near Jurien Bay, which must have got there since he was at that place, three months before. Mr. Edward Brockman states that at the latter end of April, or beginning of May last, he saw a three-masted vessel cruising about outside the Bay, for six or seven days; the weather was not rough, most of her sails were set; she did not appear to be in distress. Lance-Corporal Lawrence, who visited the wreck on the 9th inst., gives the following description of the wreck:—Bulwarks about 3ft. 6in. high, painted green, a yellow paint streak; hull painted black, sheathed with copper, built of foreign timber, planking three inches thick; believed to have been about 150 tons burthen. About five miles from the wreck he found a ship's boat, about 18 feet long, painted white with a black streak around gunwale, no name on her; she had apparently been drawn up on the beach, an oar and boathook was in the boat, and the sails and mast lying alongside her.

JAMES MANNING, exp., at Northam Police Court, charged by P.C. Maher, with supplying on the 22nd April, one bottle of Colonial Wine to ab. native Annie. Fined £30 or in default one week imprisonment, and two months' in lieu of fine.

H. J. COOK, Publican, at Northam Police Court, charged by L.C. Burnside, with unlawfully selling on Sunday, 11th inst., to James Green, one bottle of Colonial Wine. Fined £50, or in default, 6 months' hard labour.

C. R. 10028, James Carr, reports returning to Yatheroo, Toodyay District, to reside.

Vide C.I. 129.

The bell therein mentioned is the property of the Government.

Vide Circular from York, 26th April, 1873.

Sergeant Waldoek reported that Reg. No. 5996 William Jones, t.l., has not yet been arrested; he is supposed to be working at some of the mines, or on the Railway at Champion Bay. If whereabouts known, to be reported.

Vide Police Gazette, page 67.

The two sockets of carriage lamps claimed by Henry Ranford, Perth.

Vide Apprehensions, page 50.

DAVID ALEXANDER HAY, at Bunbury, on 26th inst., brought up under remand, and committed for trial; admitted to bail as before.

THE undermentioned Certificates of Freedom and Conditional Pardons are at present in the Detective Office, Perth. The Police throughout the Colony will inform such of the owners as are known to them that they can receive them on application.

On the Fremantle Road, 24th inst.,—a book, "Bunyan's Holy War."

Inquests.

Held at Geraldton, on the 14th inst., on the body of Thomas Williams, t.l., 9622, before G. Eliot, coroner, and a jury. Inquest adjourned till 20th inst., when a Verdict of Manslaughter was given against David Jones, exp., late 6171, of Gwalla. From the evidence, it was adduced that the death of Williams was caused through Jones assaulting him, by striking him with a large stone upon the forehead, on the 30th May last, at Northampton, from the effects of which deceased never recovered. Williams died while being conveyed from Northampton to Geraldton Hospital.

Held by J. G. Slade, on the body of Col. Reg. No. 10125, John Regan, at Fremantle Prison, 26th inst. Verdict—"Died from natural causes."

Horses and Cattle.

Strayed from Gwalla in the beginning of May last, a large bay horse, about 16 hands 3 in. high, branded with B on off side, small white blaze down face, and a small No. 2 horse bell on. Horse and bell the property of the Government.
