Miscellaneous.

Vide Police Gazette, pages 122 and 129.

P.C. Edwards, Beverley, reports result of inquiry referring to remains of a man found at Qualing Gully. There is every reason to believe that it is the remains of PATRICK RYAN, exp., late Reg. No. 3221, who answers to the description given and was seen, in February or March last, at Stanton Springs, by Henry Randall, who gave Ryan some food; Stanton Springs is about 13 miles from where deceased was found.

JOHN BAGSHAW, exp., is now residing at York.

An aboriginal native boy (not known), about five or six years old, was found dead by an aboriginal named Dolbey, on 27th ult., near Mallalling, Beverley District. Dolbey reported it to a shepherd named John Rourke, who saw the body and identified it as that of a boy he had seen two days previously in company with two other natives, he was then very sick. The night previous to finding the body was very cold and wet; and as there were no marks of violence on the body, Rourke and Dolbey buried it.

MATTHEW BATEMAN, free; charged at Pinjarrah Police Court, by L.C. Urquhart, on 14th inst., with unlawfully shooting and maiming a cow the property of E. McLarty, on the 6th inst. Fined £2 10s., including costs.

WILLIAM LAKEY, exp., late Reg. No. 5862; charged by Water police, Fremantle, on 18th inst., at Fremantle Police Court, with landing and taking to his house, one cask pitch from the South Beach, from the British ship "Majorian," without due entry being made or warrant granted for its landing. Judgment reserved.

Referring to dog lost by James Galpin, it has been reported by P.C. McCormish that Richard Flindell took away a dog answering to description of dog in question, with the intention of taking it to India. Richard Flindell left Albany in August last per s.s. "Bangalore," but took no dog with him, neither did he take one to Albany.

At Northampton Police Court, on 13th inst., Richard Lucas, free, publican, fined 40s. and costs, for allowing a drunken person to remain on his premises; two other cases heard against Lucas, one dismissed and the other judgment reserved.

At Bunbury Police Court, on 16th inst., Joseph Buswell, exp., late Reg. No. 3223, lodging house keeper, was fined 40s., for allowing a drunken man to remain on his premises.

Inquests.

On 19th inst., by J. G. Slade, R.M., Fremantle, on body of William Taylor, exp., late 7562, who died suddenly at Fremantle, on 18th inst. Verdict—"Accidental death, caused by the rupture of a blood-vessel in the left lung, caused by a fall while carrying a heavy weight on the 18th inst."

On 21st inst., at Colonial Hospital, Perth, by E. W. Landor, Esq., Police Magistrate, on the body of James Ward, free, found drowned in River Swan, Perth, on 21st inst. Verdict—"Accidental death by falling off William Street jetty, Perth, and being drowned." This verdict not to prejudice any other verdict being delivered if it should be ascertained that Ward had met with any foul play.

On 21st inst., by J. G. Slade, Esq., Resident Magistrate, Fremantle, at Fremantle Prison Hospital, on body of Matthew Tierney, free, late a private of the Enrolled Force, who died on 21st inst. Verdict—"Died from the effects of a gunshot wound in the left jaw, caused by an accident while on sentry at the prison, on the 28th ult."

Assault.

JOHN F. WHITELEY, free, schoolmaster of Roman Catholic Orphanage, Subiaco, charged by Corporal Archdeacon, at Perth Police Court, on 21st inst., with having committed an aggravated assault upon a boy named Thomas Philip McGann, who is under the age of 14 years, by flogging him with an instrument called a cat of nine tails, the ends being tipped with catgut, and giving him 36 strokes therewith upon his loins with undue severity, on the 11th October, 1876. Fined £20 without costs, or in default 6 months' imprisonment.

J. CARREAS, Roman Catholic Priest in charge of Orphanage, Subiaco, charged by Corporal Archdeacon, at Perth Police Court, on 21st., for that he did aid, abet, counsel, and procure the commission of an aggravated assault on Thomas Philip McGann, as above described. Fined £20 without costs, or in default six months' imprisonment.

Warrants Issued.

CHIPLAIN, ab. native, middling stout, about 19 years old, about 5ft. 6in., round visage; a Mines' native; is charged, on warrant issued at Knockbrack, on 11th inst., with deserting the service of Sarah Read, on or about 15th August, 1876.

JOHN HAWKINS, exp., late 7720. Description—middling stout, about 35 years, 5ft. 5½in. high, hair very dark brown, dark hazel eyes, round visage, dark complexion; is charged, on warrant issued at Knockbrack, on 14th inst., with being in the service of William Nancarrow, on or about 23rd September, 1876, and did break open and carry away a case of spirits, the property of William Nancarrow, he being in charge of same as teamster.

Ticket-of-Leave

on own account granted to:—

Reg. No. 8476 Thomas Ashmore, for Guildford district, dated 19th October, 1876.

Property Found.

Cheque therein described claimed by and handed to S. W. Viveash, Esq.

On Brookton Run, Beverley District, on 25th ult.,—a book entitled "A Noble Life," with "John Jones' book, 18th February, 1876," written on fly leaf.

The sunshade therein described claimed by and handed over to Mrs. Steere.

The saddle cloth therein described as lost, found.

In property found on beach by P.C. Stack, read MEERUP River instead of MURRAY River.

On 15th inst., by a boy named Hayden, at Geraldton,—a silver geneva watch, ¾-plate, hunting, No. 34327; this watch was found buried near Hugh McCourt's house. McCourt had reported, on 14th inst., that this watch had been stolen from him, and suspected t.l. Reg. No. 9379, William Allen, of the robbery.

Tarpaulin therein described claimed by the finder.

Small gold toothpick therein described claimed by and given to finder.

On 24th inst., in Howick Street, Perth,—American axe, large size, nearly new.
