MISCELLANEOUS INFORMATION.

WILLIAM WATSON, a shepherd, employed on the Poolamacca Station, in the colony of New South Wales, left that station on the 1st December last, intending to go to the Gorge Station, 40 miles distant from Poolamacca. He was riding a grey mare, and was seen at Mount Gipps Station, on the following day, which he left to pursue his journey to the Gorge, and since then has not been seen or heard of. Foul play is suspected, and suspicion strongly points to a man named William Rowe, otherwise Bullocky Bill. He was seen riding Watson's horse, on the 28th of December, and offered it to a man named George Lidlow, in New South Wales, stating that the owner was dead and that he (Bullocky Bill) should clear out. Description of William Watson—aged 70 years, 6ft. high, grey hair and beard; speaks with a broad Scotch accent, was formerly a master mariner. Description of William Rowe alias Bullocky Bill—native of Adelaide, aged 29 years, 5ft. 8½ in. high, fresh complexion, light brown hair, brown eyes, large nose, slightly Roman, large mouth, scar and freckles right arm, former near elbow; scar little finger right hand, anchor over left thumb, vaccine marks, right arm, mark from kick of horse, right knee. Photograph at Detective Office, Perth; and any information respecting these men to be sent there.

Missing Friends.

Information required respecting a man named William Kibby, who was tried at Southampton, on 25th February, 1837, and sentenced to transportation for life to the Colony of Tasmania. Kibby resided in the Colony of Tasmania until May 1861, when he absconded illegally from his authorised place of residence, and is supposed to have left for some of the other Australian Colonies. Enquiry to be made and report sent to Detective Office, Perth. No description sent.

JOHN MOORE, formerly of Adelaide, sawyer, is enquired for, at the instance of his wife, in Adelaide. Moore is reported to have been aboard the Contest, when she stranded at Fremantle. No description sent. Any information respecting this missing friend to be immediately sent to Detective Office, Perth.

Cruelty to Animals.

FREDERICK WATTS, free; charged by P.C. Mansfield, at Perth Police Court, on 6th inst., with cruelly treating three horses, his property. Fined 20s. and costs.

THOMAS DARCY, exp., late 4018; charged by P.C. Mansfield, at Perth Police Court, on 7th inst., with cruelly treating two horses, his property. Fined 20s.
