No. 21, 17th May, 1882.

On the 17th January, 1882, the headless body of a man was found near the Deep Lead Railway Station, Stawell, and at an inquest, held subsequently, it was shown that the man had been wilfully murdered. The remains are believed to be those of one Charles Forbes or Forbys, who worked on the Dimboola line of railway during the months of October, November, and December, 1881, with a man named Robert Francis Burns. The said Robert Francis Burns has since been arrested, and committed for trial at the Central Criminal Court, to be held at Melbourne on the 15th day of August, 1882, for the murder of Charles Forbes or Forbys; but as the prisoner alleges that Forbes is still alive, it is requested that the said Charles Forbes or Forbys, if living, or any person acquainted with him, or able to give information about him since the date of his disappearance, should at once communicate with the Chief Commissioner of Police, Melbourne. Description of the missing man, Charles Forbes, is as follows:—About 40 years of age, 5ft. 10½ or 11 inches high, 14 stone weight, full sandy beard, and hair a shade darker, supposed to be a native of the North of Ireland. O. 582, 16th May, 1882.

On the 17th ult. a man giving the name of GEORGE NEWMAN visited William Lavender's sheep station at Colegan, Williams River, and stated he was in search of runs for Mr. Brockman. He had with him a bright bay horse, about 16 hands high, white blaze down face, branded S or 8 under saddle, near side; bright bay horse, black points, about 15 hands high, branded 5 near shoulder, and a black mare, heavy in foal, blotched brand under saddle, near side, long tail. He sold the black mare to William Lavender for £8 10s. and with part of the proceeds purchased a brindle kangaroo dog, receiving as balance an order on G. Shenton, dated 19th or 20th June, 1882, drawn by William Lavender in favor of George Newman: amount, £6. He left Lavender's on the 19th or 20th ult. with the two horses first described, and kangaroo dog, and stated that he was going to Perth but was afterwards met going in the direction of Bunbury. On the 20th ult., William Lavender missed from his paddock a bay gelding, black points, 14½ hands high, small star in forehead, hog mane, tail docked, shod all round, branded P and EQ over P, near shoulder, saddle marked, the property of Thomas Storey, which he believes to have been taken away by Newman. W. Lavender gives the following description of George Newman: stout, age 24 or 25 years, 5ft. 5 or 6in. high, light hair, sandy whiskers, full visage, fresh complexion—was well dressed and very intelligent. Inquiries to be made respecting this man, and the horses described, and reports forwarded to Detective Office.
