OFFENCES NOT OTHERWISE DESCRIBED.

Robert Day is charged on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having, between the 9th and 16th ult., at Christchurch, absconded or being about to abscond from his bail to appear at the Supreme Court, Christchurch, on the 8th inst., to answer to a charge of having forged a cheque for £1,000.—Description: English, a farmer, between forty and forty-five years of age, 6ft. high, stout build, broad shoulders, very large rough hands, swarthy complexion, good looking features, dark brown beard, whiskers and moustache worn fairly long, a yellowish tint at points of moustache, heavy eyebrows, mark of an old wound on one of shins, believed the right one, generally wears dark grey clothes. He will likely alter his appearance and dress, with a view of endeavoring to leave the colony. He left Kaikoura on the 16th ult., by the steamer Wakatu, for Wellington, under the name of Campbell, and was then shaved, except beard and moustache, and wore a dark tweed coat and cord trousers. He may have been joined at Wellington by a woman named Bush alias Dash alias Ticen, who left Lyttelton on the 12th ult., as a steerage passenger by the steamer Waihora, for Wellington. She is about twenty-eight years of age, stout build, good looking features, freckled, fair complexion, light colored hair, wore a greyish colored ulster, greenish colored hat, and had with her a child five months old; she had also with her a brown leather portmanteau, labelled "Mrs. Ticen, Wellington," the property of the offender, and two boxes of her own, one of which was painted yellow, and bore a similar address to that on the portmanteau. Offender is also charged on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having forged the name of Daniel Day, to a promissory note for £1,000. He may assume the name of Hornby. He and the woman will likely have large sums of money in gold in their possession. Photographs of offender in Inspector's Office, Wellington.

Extract from New South Wales Police Gazette,

April 1st, 1885.

Information is requested respecting Julia Bateman, sometimes called Berry, supposed a native of Dublin, a cook or general servant, about 41 years of age, about 5ft. 5in. high, slight build, dark complexion, long visage, dark hair turning grey. She arrived in Wellington from London about seven years ago, and acted as housekeeper for John Ward, late a drummer in the 65th Regiment, and a messenger in the Government Buildings up to the time of his death, which occurred about six years ago. She left Porirua about four years ago, and has not since been heard of. She is inquired for at the instance of her sister, who resides at New York.
