Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. ⁶/₇₇₆.—The Acting Superintendent of Police directs the attention of the Police throughout the Colony to the following extract from an opinion of the Honorable the Acting Attorney General, in the recent case of "Cornwall v. Police," and to His Excellency the Governor's Minute thereon:—

Extract from C.S.O. No. ³⁰⁸⁶/₈₆.

"I would like to add that if it be true that a constable effected an entrance through a window of a private bedroom, and secreted himself in the bar room, and when the liquor was placed upon the counter stood up and took the spirits, such conduct on the part of a constable should be severely condemned. The duty of a policeman is to prevent breaches of the law, and not to stand by in hiding for the purpose of catching offenders after the perpetration of offences which he is in a position to prevent. Every Inn-keeper in the Colony—so general has been the misreading of the law—would have supplied a traveller on a Sunday, and the conduct of the constable in this case in no way tends to encourage respect for the law."

SEPT. BURT,
Acting Attorney General.
28-7-86.

His Excellency the Governor's Minute.

Hon. A. C. S.,

I remit the fine: so reply to Mr. Haynes. Such action as this constable it is stated took in detecting this offence certainly was very special and exceptional, and should only be taken with great circumspection, and for very good reasons, that is, presuming the entry through the window, &c., was a legal act. If illegal, of course such action should never be taken at all.

Send to the Superintendent of Police for his information.
