No. 41.]

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 13.

[1886.]

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information

C.O. ^o/₇₈₀.—Police Officers in charge of Districts and Sub-Districts are held responsible that all, outstanding accounts for liabilities incurred by them or the police serving under them, on account of the Police Department, whether under contracts or otherwise, are forwarded to the Chief Office not later than the 1st January, 1887.

Special duty returns are to be forwarded in time to reach the Chief Office not later than the 3rd January, 1887, and, where the course of post will permit, should include all claims for the month of December; where this is not the case they should be made up to as late a date in December as possible.

All supplies, including forage, fuel, &c., required for the remainder of the year should be obtained, and shoeing and repairs executed early in the month of December. The Officer incurring the liability should then see that the contractor or other person performing the service renders his account at once.

Accounts are to be forwarded with the usual supporting vouchers as they are received, and not held over till the end of the month.

GEO. PHILLIPS,
Acting Superintendent of Police.
