Police Gazette,

WESTERN AUSTRALIA.

[Published by Authority.]

This Gazette is published for Police information only, and the Police throughout the Colony are instructed to make themselves thoroughly acquainted with the contents.

FRED. HARE, Commissioner of Police.

No. 42.]

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 16.

[1901.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

Erratum:

Vide Police Gazette, 1901, page 321, C.O. $\frac{35}{1901}$.

Death:

For W. R. P. Fooley read Pooley.

C.O. $\frac{36}{1901}$.—Members of the Police Force requiring to consult a doctor must adhere strictly to the instructions contained in the standing regulations.

Any member of the force incurring expense through neglecting to obey this instruction will be surcharged with the amount involved.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

8-10-1901.

C.O. $\frac{37}{1901}$.—The attention of officers in charge of districts is drawn to the necessity of exercising more care in supervising the compilation and despatch of Forage Returns.

The returns from one or two districts are models of accuracy and order, but it is evident the same attention is not paid to the regulations with regard to this matter by the majority of the officers concerned. Instead of sending single and detached copies of Form P. 4 haphazardly to the Chief Office, just as they are received from the stations, mixed up with other papers, the officer in charge of district ought to retain them in his office until he is in receipt of the Monthly Forage Abstract.

The Horse and Forage Forms (P. 4) for that month should then be attached to the abstract, and the whole of the Forage Returns for the district forwarded to the Chief Office, separate from other returns, and in accordance with Regulation 625.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

10-10-1901.

C.O. $\frac{38}{1901}$.—Officers in charge of stations are requested in future to render separately accounts for rations supplied to persons charged with lunacy, and committed to the Asylum, and those for persons not so committed.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.

11-10-1901.
