FRED. HARE, Commissioner of Police.

No. 44.]

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4.

[1903.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. $\frac{36}{1903}$.—His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to appoint the following additional persons to be Inspectors under Section 24 of 61 Victoria, No. 25, for the Magisterial Districts stated:—

Wellington Magisterial District.

Sergeant J. C. Smyth, No. 44, vice Goodridge, No. 75.

Collie Magisterial District.

Corporal R. H. Pilmer, No. 93.

Sussex Magisterial District.

Corporal A. Purkiss, No. 120.

Blackwood Magisterial District.

Constable W. Douglas, No. 209.

W. C. LAWRENCE,

Superintendent,

Acting for Commissioner of Police.

27th October, 1903.

TICKET OF LEAVE HOLDERS.

C.O. $\frac{37}{1903}$.—It is desired by the Sheriff and Inspector of Prisons that where it is known to the police that a Ticket of Leave holder is endeavouring to obtain an honest livelihood, he should not be interfered with for committing any trifling breach of the Ticket of Leave Regulations.

Should a Ticket of Leave holder be arrested for any breach of the Regulations, he should be taken before the nearest magistrate to be dealt with, except it is found necessary to remand him to another district for the purpose of having the charge heard.

W. C. LAWRENCE,

Superintendent,

Acting for Commissioner of Police.

2nd November, 1903.

C.O. $\frac{38}{1903}$.—In various districts of the State it is customary for the police to receive payment of fees for service of Police Court summonses from the Clerk of Petty Sessions. The practice, however, is irregular, and must at once cease. The only fees for service of summonses by the police and mileage are those provided in the fifth schedule of "The Justices' Act, 1902," and on collection these must be paid to the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

District officers will, in future, therefore, be careful to see that all such fees are dealt with in the manner prescribed.

W. C. LAWRENCE,

Superintendent,

Acting for Commissioner of Police.

2nd November, 1903.

C.O. $\frac{39}{1903}$.

The police throughout the State are hereby instructed to assist Stock Inspectors to enforce the subjoined Regulations framed under "The Stock Diseases Act, 1895," and published in the Government Gazette by an Order-in-Council dated 29th ultimo.

W. C. LAWRENCE,

Superintendent,

Acting for Commissioner of Police.

REGULATIONS UNDER "THE STOCK DISEASES ACT, 1895."

1. Every person, being the owner of, or the agent of the owner of, or in possession or charge of any swine within any part of the State, shall, for the space of six weeks immediately following the 29th day of October, One thousand nine hundred and three, being the date of the publication of these Regulations in the Government Gazette, confine and keep confined such swine strictly within the boundaries of the premises whereon such swine shall be.

2. No person shall remove, or permit or suffer to be removed, any swine from such premises during such period of six weeks.

3. Every person being the owner of, or the agent of the owner of, or in possession or charge of any infected swine, or any swine suspected of being infected, shall, within twenty-four hours after he shall have discovered or suspected, or should have discovered or suspected such swine to be infected, give notice in writing thereof to an Inspector, and shall keep such swine from coming into contact with any other swine until the Inspector shall otherwise order.

Any person committing a breach of any of the foregoing regulations shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding Five hundred pounds.

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous

C.O. 1003. Information.

The Hon. the Colonial Treasurer directs that for the future cheques are not to be received in payment of Revenue or other Public Service unless they have been previously marked "good" by the Bank on which they are drawn. District Officers, therefore, will be good enough to see that this is strictly obeyed in all cases.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.
