FRED. HARE, Commissioner of Police.

No. 17.]

Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. <sup>9</sup>/<sub>1905</sub>.—In a recent criminal prosecution at Kalgoorlie, Mr. Justice Parker, in his charge to the jury, expressed the opinion that "police officers are not justified in doing anything to induce a man to commit a crime which he may contemplate committing; nor in telling a falsehood to a person under arrest which may have the effect of leading the latter to make a statement prejudicial to his defence."

In that opinion, I, of course, concur, and the police are hereby warned, under severe penalty, against pursuing the course so strongly reprobated by His Honour in the case referred to.

FRED. HARE,
Commissioner of Police.
