Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O. $\frac{27}{1905}$.—Special inquiry is requested for the whereabouts of the undermentioned persons who have been granted licenses under "The Marine Stores Act, 1902," and who are still in possession of their badges and expired licenses. Should any of these persons be traced they should be asked to return their badges to the Police at once. If the badges are returned in good order a refund of 2s. 6d. each will be allowed. Accounts should therefore be rendered in the name of the persons handing in the badges.

The attention of the Police is specially directed to sub-section (8), section 5, and regulation 4, sub-sections (a), (b), and (c) of 2 Edwardi 7, No. 9, and the provisions therein must be strictly enforced:—
