The "cat-o'-nine-tails" only is to be used for whipping aboriginals.

CIRCULAR

C.S.O. ¹⁰⁰²₉₂.

Attorney General's Office,
Perth, 29th June, 1892.

MEMORANDUM—

The attention of the Government having been called to the description of instrument said to have been used on a recent occasion in administering a sentence of whipping to Aboriginal Natives, I desire to impress upon all Magistrates the necessity of the utmost care being exercised in carrying out the punishment of whipping to which aboriginal natives may be sentenced.

Under no circumstances whatever should any other instrument than the "Cat-o-nine-tails" be used, unless it be some description of whip (other than a stock-whip) or a birch rod. A rope or a stick of any kind or sort must not on any account be used, and a Magistrate allowing a native to be whipped with either of such last-named instruments will incur very grave responsibility and render himself answerable for the result of his acts.

SEP. BURT,
Attorney General.
