Circular Orders and Miscellaneous Information.

C.O.  $\frac{3}{4}$ —As Christmas Day is a holy day as well as an universal public holiday, and as, moreover, the pressure of police duty on Christmas Eve is exceptionally severe, Officers in Charge of Districts are directed to arrange for the release from duty during that day of all Members of the Force under their command, except the few whose services are indispensable to the maintenance of order, etc. It is desirable that as many of the police as practicable should have an opportunity of participating in the general festivities. Arrangements must of course be made to have an ample number of police on duty in the evening and during the night, when the demands upon them are likely to be heavy.

Those members of the Force who are required to do duty on Christmas Day should, in their turn, be released on New Year's Day.

GEO. PHILLIPS,
Commissioner of Police.
