BRADSHAW'S LIMITED, FREMANTLE.

THE Outlay of many Thousands of Pounds, the expenditure of real live energy, the thought of keen alert brains, are the combined forces that built and equipped the premises represented above. The progress of the business reads like some fairy romance, at once it leapt into popularity, the most sanguine expectations were totally eclipsed; the people have made it—

A Home—A Rendezvous—A Favourite Shopping Centre

—never has labour met with better reward.

Let us glance for a moment at the hidden springs, at the centre of things. Every detail of management is regulated with clock-like precision, each Mail Boat for the Homeland carries instructions, orders, hints to, or requests of the Home buyers (who, by the way, are at the top of their profession), almost every boat arriving brings its quota of merchandise. Every market of standing is carefully watched. Reliable makers only are dealt with, goods are purchased on a strict cash basis only. Economy is rigidly practised, except as regards the staff pay sheet, for the Firm knows that liberal salaries mean liberal service.

Then again it should be remembered that this is a business with an ideal—it aims always at providing the maximum of value at the minimum of cost—it has no other object but the service of the people; and its managers and directors look forward confidently to no very distant date, when it shall be in size what it now is in character,

THE VERY FIRST STORE IN THE STATE.

DEPARTMENTS ARE:—

Mantles, Millinery, Ladies' & Children's Underclothing, Infants' & Girls' Outfitting, Men's & Boys' Clothing, Mercery, Ribbons, Laces, Hosiery, Haberdashery, Foreign Fancies, Travelling Trunks, Confectionery, Stationery, Patent Medicines, Perfumeries, Dresses, Silks, Household Drapery, Furniture and Floor Coverings.

All Goods marked in Plain Figures at OUR FAMOUS KEEN CASH PRICES.
