ARTEMIS WOMEN'S ART FORUM INC.

Discussions for the formation of Artemis began in November 1985. The first meeting for the group was held on 5 February 1986 at Praxis. Artemis was then known as the Women's Art Forum. The name "Artemis" was decided at a meeting on 25 June 1986. During this month, a constitution was drawn up. A list of objectives was developed over the succeeding months.

Artemis was concerned with raising the status of women in the arts. The aim of the group was to provide a forum for local women artists, art teachers, critics and writers to come together and critically evaluate contemporary art practice as it related to women in the arts in Western Australia.

Due to lack of funding, Artemis was disbanded in 1990. The Artemis collection was deposited at the State Archives on 1 September 1992. It covers the full period of the group's activity from 1986 to 1990.

The Papers

The records were donated to Battye Library on 1 September 1992 (Acc. 4476A).
