

KINGSLEY FAIRBRIDGE FARM SCHOOL

Kingsley Fairbridge, founder of the Child Emigration Society in London, arrived in Western Australia in 1912 and commenced work on the establishment of a Farm School near Pinjarra. The local Society was incorporated in 1918 as the Children's Farm School Immigration Society of Western Australia (Incorporated). After 1948 it continued as the Fairbridge Society (Incorporated), to run various immigration schemes, including the "One Parent Scheme" and the "Two Parent Scheme". The Fairbridge Farm School at Pinjarra closed in 1981.

Access to personal files of Fairbridge children is restricted. Old Fairbridgians may view their own personal file if they provide proof of their identity to State Library staff. If adequate proof of identity is not available, the requestor must contact the President, Old Fairbridgians' Association.

ACC 9481A (Children's register) is restricted until 2045. Contact the President, Old Fairbridgians Association Inc. to request access.

		REGISTERS
ACC 9481A RESTRICTED	21 January 1913-17 August 1982	Register of all children admitted to Fairbridge, Pinjarra. Detail usually includes child's name, date of birth, place of birth (until 1952), religion, name of ship on which the child sailed, date of sailing, date of arrival. Some entries have accompanying notes, with details of the child's subsequent life, including: employment, marriage, death. From 1961, the register includes details of the 'One Parent Family' and 'Two Parent Family' schemes. At this time, details of the child are more sparse, usually including only the child's name, date of birth, ship name or flight number (from August 1966) and date released to parent/s There is an index of names for 1913-1939 at the rear of the register. A note on page 212 states: "The following families were not hostelled at Fairbridge, Pinjarra, but were accommodated at Noalimba in Bateman". A list of names follows (pp212-214) A digital copy of the register has been created and archived until 2045
