

PARRY AND ROSENTHAL COLLECTION OF ARCHITECTURAL PLANS

Mervyn Henry Parry and Kenneth George Rosenthal formed the architectural partnership, Parry and Rosenthal Pty Ltd, in Perth in 1959. The collection consists of architectural drawings of public and church buildings, some by Mr Parry's father Herbert Parry (George Herbert), 1882-1951.

Henry Hutton Parry and was educated in Perth and later at St Edmund's School Herbert was born in Perth, the son of the second Anglican Bishop of Perth, in Canterbury, England. He worked in London as an architect before returning to Perth in 1907 when he joined the Public Works Department. A year later he left to join the partnership of Cavanagh and Cavanagh in Perth and in 1911 Parry established his own practice. His particular interest was in ecclesiastical work and he designed numerous churches in Western Australia.

Parry was joined in practice by Marshall Clifton in 1929 and again from 1933 to 1937.

Notable Western Australian buildings designed by Parry include:

The Chapel of the Guardian Angel, built 1937, part of Sister's Kate's Children's Home, Queens Park; St Mary's Anglican Church, South Perth;

St Cuthbert's Anglican Church, Darlington and Burt Memorial Hall, St Georges Terrace.
