

HETHERINGTON, PENELOPE

Dr Penelope Hetherington, nee Loveday, was born in 1928 in South Australia. In 1951, she married Bob Hetherington, and had three children. She taught in State secondary schools until 1957. Between 1960 and 1972, she undertook further study which included obtaining a Master of Arts at the University of Western Australia (UWA). From 1970 until 1993, she worked in the History Department of the University of Western Australia, teaching at various times European history, African history, and the history of women and children. She was awarded a D.Litt in 2004 and became a Research Fellow at the UWA Department of History.
