

Genealogical notes on the main Western Australian pioneer families

The notes compiled by Canon P.U. Henn in the 1930s and typed by staff of the Battye Library in 1973. Compiled from Church of England registers of births, deaths and marriages of which Canon made transcripts (copies are held in the Battye Library) plus entries found in newspapers, or, reported to Canon Henn by members of the families or friends.

Percy Umfreville Henn (1865-1955), clergyman and headmaster, was born on 21 January 1865 in Manchester, England. He was headmaster of Worksop College. Henn arrived in Perth in 1900 as a missionary. After a brief stay at Kalgoorlie, he moved to Geraldton as rector, and was rector of Northam in 1902-1905. In 1909 he was headmaster of Guildford Grammar School and later canon at St George's Cathedral in 1921.

Henn was interested in history, and transcribed, compiled and wrote many histories about pioneering families in W.A. He retired permanently to Perth in 1933 and continued to take an active interest in Church affairs, especially education, until his death on 25 February 1955.
