

WANNEROO. UNITING CHURCH

The Methodist Church operated in the Wanneroo district as early as 1840. A local congregation, attached to Perth circuit initially, existed for various periods, dissolved and reformed a number of times over the years.

The present Parish had its genesis in the Wanneroo United Church, a combined Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational Church founded in 1976, as part of the Greenwood United Parish. The congregation at that time met at the Wanneroo Recreation Centre.

A separate Wanneroo Parish was inaugurated on 1 January 1980, but the Minister (Rev. John Gilks) was inducted ready for the inauguration of the new Parish on the 16 December 1979. At first the Parish worshipped in St. Peters' Anglican Centre but later moved to Wanneroo High School and in 1994 to the Function Centre in Civic Drive.

Beldon-Iluka Parish (west of the Mitchell Freeway) was excised from it on 6 January 1991.
